

Do you know the number one reason teens give for not using alcohol, tobacco or other drugs?

If you answered _____, you are correct. Research shows teens report they choose not to use because they do not want to disappoint their parent(s).¹

Parents _____ always be there to help their teen make the right choices. Parents _____ help their child develop skills to manage their need for peer acceptance in positive and productive ways.³

