Meet Kellogg's New Principal

When Kellogg Middle School re-opens in the fall, veteran educator Richard Smith will lead the effort as principal.

Smith has been principal of Lent K-8 School since 2018.

At Lent, Smith took over a traditionally underserved campus and improved attendance, school culture and staff retention.

Smith assumed his new position in January to get a jump on the many details involved in opening a brand new school.

New Kellogg Feeder Schools

Under the approved enrollment boundaries, the neighborhood programs at Arleta, Marysville, Creston and Lent will convert from their kindergarten-to-8th grade (K-8) structure to District 6 feeder schools. District 6 feeder schools will move to Kellogg starting in the 2021-22 school year. District 6 feeder schools include Bridger, Creston, Marysville, Spanish, and Lent, all of which will feed into Kellogg.
